PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 106th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 145

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1999

No. 94

Senate

The Senate met at 10:30 a.m. and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Today's prayer will be offered by our guest Chaplain, Rabbi Shimshon Sherer, Congregation Khai Zichron Mordechai, Brooklyn, NY.

We are pleased to have you with us.

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain, Rabbi Shimshon Sherer, offered the following prayer:

Our Father in heaven: We stand before Thee in humble supplication as we yearn for divine inspiration, for guidance, and for wisdom. We turn to Thee in gratitude for this group of exceptional men and women of good faith dedicated to this great Nation and to all its people.

We bless Thee, O God, for a most precious gift that Thou bestowed upon the United States of America, upon the Jewish people, and indeed upon all of mankind, in a person, a man of history who came to be a symbol of visionary leadership and uncompromising integrity. We pay tribute to the life and legacy of the saintly revered rabbi, Rabbi Morris Sherer.

We pray to Thee, Almighty God, that his memory inspire the Members of this august body, the U.S. Senate, to find within their hearts an echo of his nobility of spirit, selfless devotion, and compassion for all in need, to demonstrate for all to see that beneath the outer veneer of our Nation's bureaucracy beats a warm heart in which the anguished cry of the depressed, the deprived, and the disadvantaged strikes a responsive chord.

Give us the understanding, O God, to grasp the true import of the sacred obligation we have, to open our hearts and hands to bring the bounties of life to every man, woman, and child in our midst.

O Father in heaven, bless this distinguished assemblage of people determined to work effectively and tirelessly for the betterment of all the people of this great Nation, that we witness in our time the fulfillment of the vision of the Psalmist, "They that sow in tears, shall reap in joy," so that from all the upheavals which shatter the soul of society today shall emerge a new world of hope, tranquility, and serenity, for the glory of God and all mankind. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Senator SPECTER will now lead the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Honorable ARLEN SPECTER, a Senator from the State of Pennsylvania, led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The able acting majority leader is recognized.

SCHEDULE

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, today the Senate will be in a period of morning business until 12:30 p.m. with Senator MOYNIHAN, or his designee, in control of the time between 10:30 a.m. and 11, Senator GRAMS, or his designee, in control of the time between 11 o'clock in the morning and 12 noon, and Senator SPECTER, or his designee, in control of the time between 12 noon and 12:30. Following morning business, the Senate will stand in recess until 2:15 p.m. so the weekly party conferences can meet.

When the Senate reconvenes at 2:15, there will be an additional 2 hours of morning business equally divided between the two leaders. The Senate is then expected to resume consideration of the pending and long-suffering agriculture appropriations bill. Therefore, votes are expected to occur.

I thank my colleagues for their attention.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The able Senator from Pennsylvania.

Mr. SPECTER. I thank the Chair.

Mr. President, I thank my distinguished colleague, Senator MOYNIHAN, for yielding 2 minutes prior to the time that his special order takes effect.

RABBI MORRIS SHERER

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I have sought this recognition to compliment Rabbi Sherer, who has just delivered the Senate prayer.

We are recognizing the outstanding work of Rabbi Sherer's father, also Rabbi Sherer, who died a little more than a year ago. Present today in the Senate gallery are some 200 representatives of a national convocation to recognize the outstanding work of the departed Rabbi Sherer.

I must say that Rabbi Sherer's comments this morning about freedom of religion and the impact on everyone in America, but with special reference to Jewish Americans, is of great significance to me because both of my parents came from foreign lands to the United States and were pleased and honored to pledge their allegiance to the United States of America.

My father left a shtetl, a small community, Batchkurina, in Ukraine, to come to the United States in 1911 at the age of 18, barely a ruble in his pocket, literally walked across Europe, took steerage in the bottom of a boat to come to America to seek his fortune, as did my mother who came with her parents when she was 5 years old in 1905 from a small town on the Russian-Polish border. They settled in America. They raised their family in America. My father fought in the American Expeditionary Force to help make the
